

Trends and Changing Landscapes

- What do these trends really mean to your values?
- What opportunities may occur to advance stewardship activities on your lake?

What are Values ?

- The natural, social, physical, and economic elements that are important to your enjoyment and connection with your lake.
- Values are linked to the reasons why people want to live, work and play at the lake.

Think about life in the City

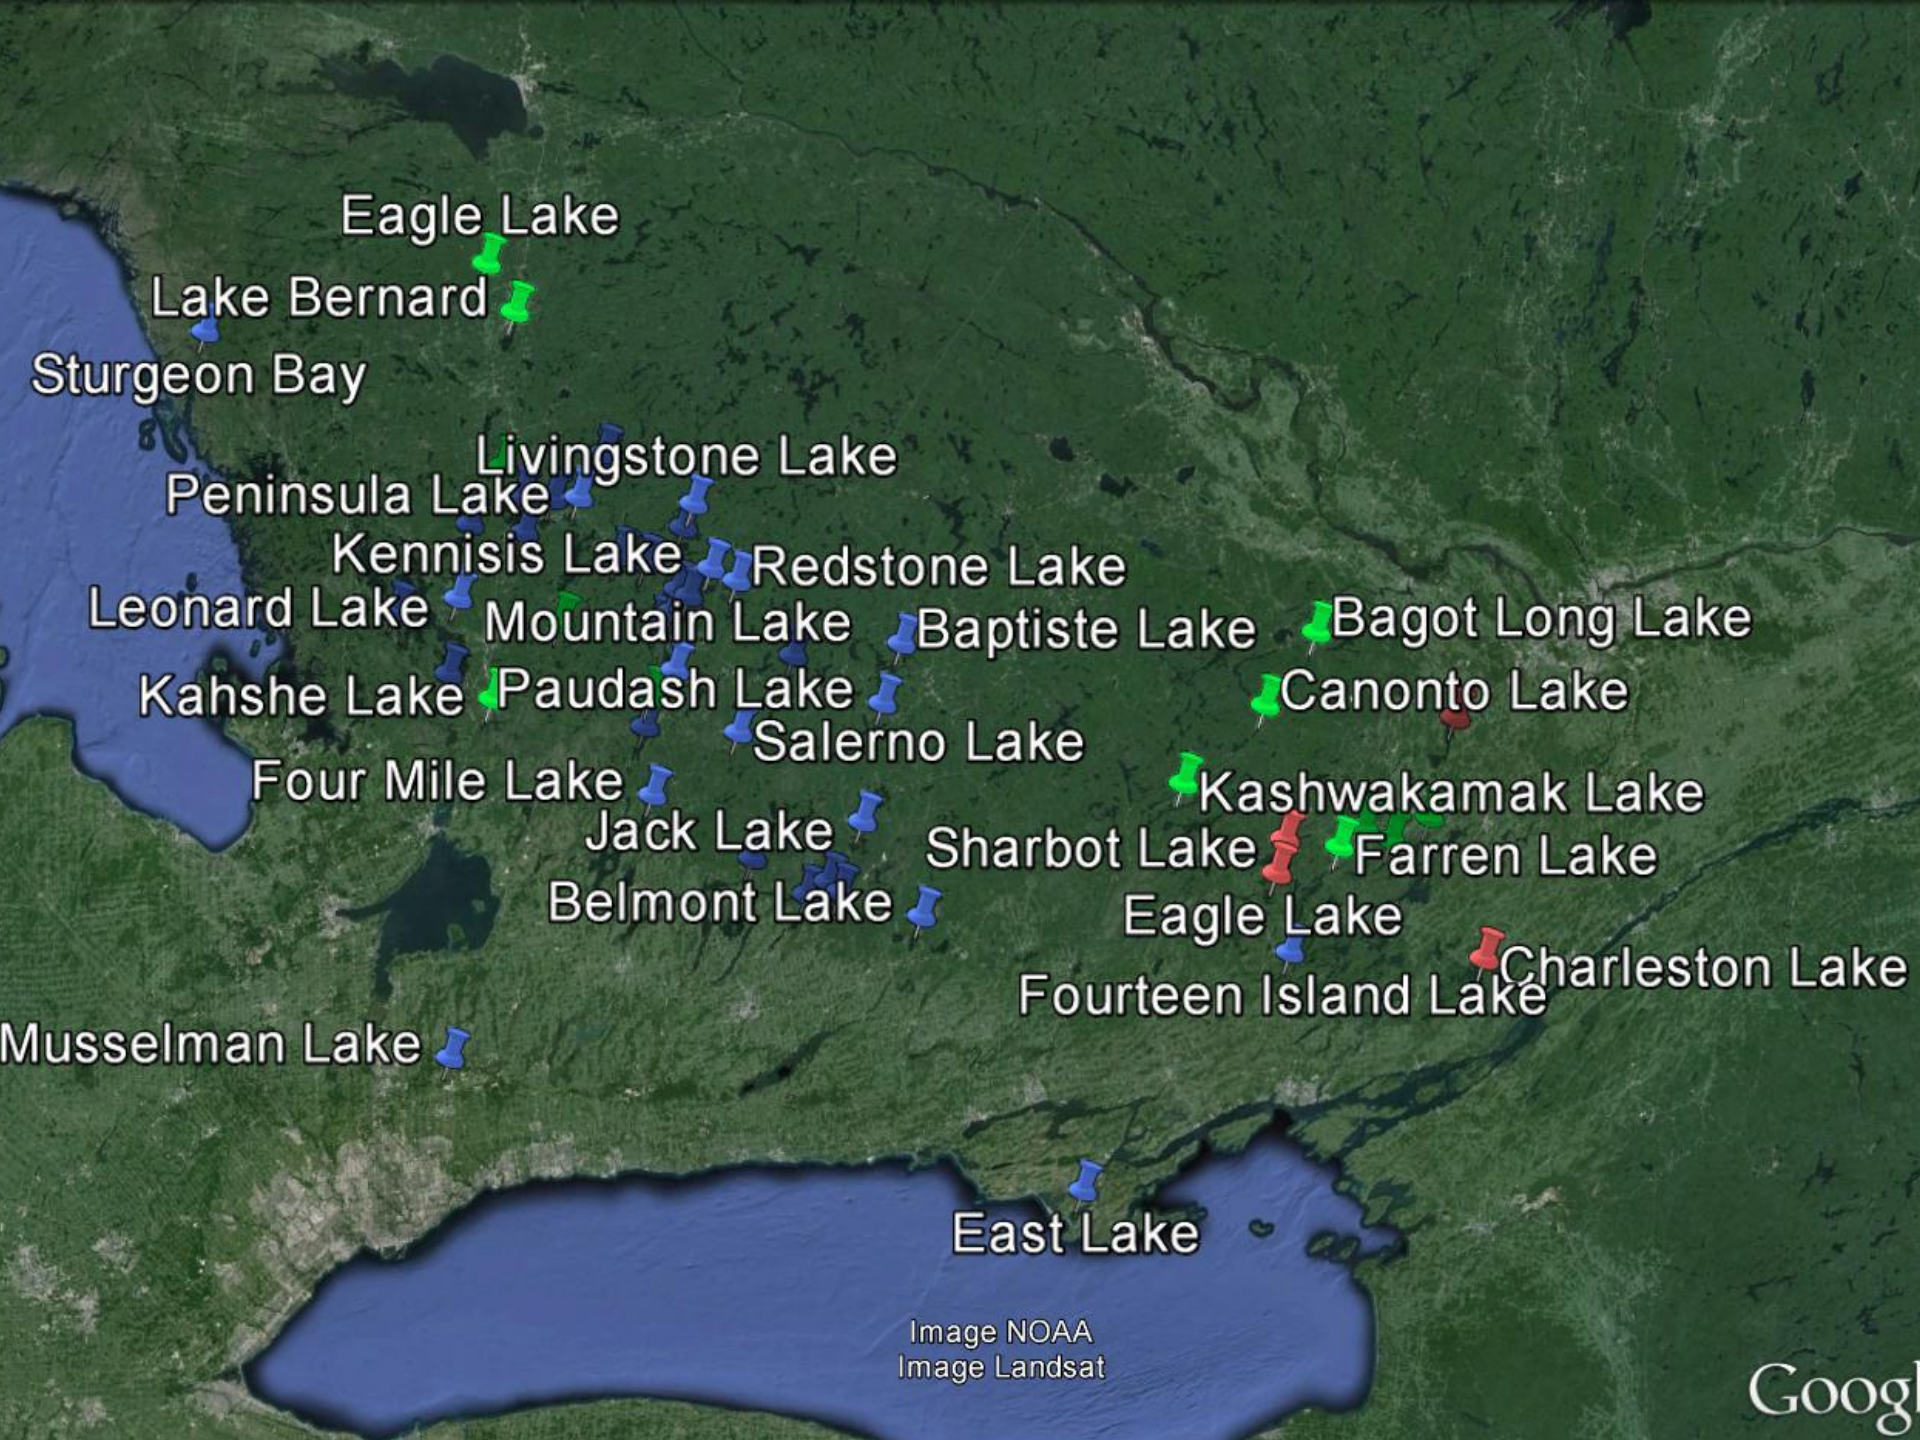

Think about life at the Lake

What is an important value of your lake?

Eagle Lake

Lake Bernard

Sturgeon Bay

Livingstone Lake

Peninsula Lake

Kennisis Lake

Redstone Lake

Leonard Lake

Mountain Lake

Baptiste Lake

Bagot Long Lake

Kahshe Lake

Paudash Lake

Salerno Lake

Canonto Lake

Four Mile Lake

Jack Lake

Sharbot Lake

Kashwakamak Lake

Farren Lake

Belmont Lake

Eagle Lake

Fourteen Island Lake

Charleston Lake

Musselman Lake

East Lake

Image NOAA
Image Landsat

Google

The Survey Says Top Ten Values

1. Water Quality
2. Natural Shorelines
3. Healthy Wildlife
4. Healthy Fish
5. Remote Feeling - Location
6. Safe Recreational Boating
7. Peace and Tranquility
8. Social Activity
9. Good People
10. Dark Skies

Trends and Changing Landscapes

WHAT IT MEANS TO US

1. What do these trends really mean to your values?
2. What opportunities may occur to advance stewardship activities on your lake?