

Woody debris piles (brush bundles) made up of branches, snags, and root balls in the water give fish like pike, largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, yellow perch, and sunfish a safe place to eat, lay eggs, rest, and hide from predators.

115-40 Sunset Blvd, Perth ON, K7H 2Y4
Canadian registered charity #86355223RR0001

Learn more about Watersheds Canada's fish habitat restoration projects: watersheds.ca/our-work/habitat-programs

