

The Pugnose Shiner (Notropis anogenus) is a small fish found in a few areas in Southern Ontario, including near the Quinte watershed. It is listed as a Species at Risk and it is extremely vulnerable to declining habitat quality.

Learn more about Watersheds Canada's fish habitat restoration projects: watersheds.ca/our-work/habitat-programs

Watersheds

C A N A D A

115-40 Sunset Blvd, Perth ON, K7H 2Y4
Canadian registered charity #86355223RR0001

